Word from Pope Francis: “God takes our hand like a father and brings us to heaven.”

Sacred Spaces 3

The Prayer Garden ~ The three traditional transcendentals are Goodness, Truth, and Beauty. We are used to hearing about Goodness and Truth, but Beauty as a path to God is often overlooked. The beauty within the created world can be a powerful reminder of God’s presence. Bishop James Conley tells us, “Every instance of real beauty points beyond itself, toward the infinite perfection of God,” to Beauty itself. Fyodor Dostoyevsky has said, “Beauty will save the world.” St. Augustine cries out, lamenting that it took so long to realize it, “O Beauty, ever ancient, ever new!

St. Robert’s, through the generosity of some of its parishioners, is greatly blessed to have the Prayer Garden. It’s a quiet refuge within the parish plant that is a sacred space. It’s a place where the heart can slow down and draw nearer to God. It’s a place where the beauty of the flowers and artwork mysteriously lead us into the presence of the Divine. Stop by sometime and rest in its quietness. Let yourself, as Pope Benedict says, be “wounded by the arrow of beauty.”

Cell Phone Collection

Donate your unused and outdated cell phones for use by the Catholic Charities Domestic Violence Shelter. All information is cleared and they will be converted to 911 phones as a safe phone for women with children as they leave the shelter. Collection continues through December 31st. Bring phones to the parish office during regular hours. St. Robert students, Kathryn & Grace Mooney, are spearheading this project again this year. Call 402-431-4934 for further information. Thank you!
Father spoke last week about the sacred spaces of the Church and the Adoration Chapel. The Prayer Garden is also a sacred space. It was consecrated by Archbishop George Lucas in a beautiful procession and ceremony. The Prayer Garden should be treated with the same reverence as the other sacred spaces at St. Robert’s, which means no eating, no loud music, no pets, and no climbing on the statues and other art work. The Garden is intended for quiet meditation and reflection, just like in the Church and the Chapel. The garden is a wonderful outside extension of the church, and we are very pleased at how everyone has been using it respectfully.

The fall colors this year have been spectacular all around Omaha, and the prayer garden is no exception. Come see what magic Jack Frost has worked in the garden!

“God Will Grow On You”

ST. ROBERT’S PRAYER GARDEN

Do you have a collection of Nativity Scenes (or even one very unique one) you would love to display with other St. Robert parishioners? The Ladies Guild Circle 2 is planning a new project for this Christmas season...."Unto Us A Child Is Born". The Nativity scenes will be displayed after all Masses the weekend of Dec. 7th-8th in the new Guild Room (formerly the Community Room) in the lower level of the Mainelli Center. Please contact Karla Brown at 402-691-8568 or karbrown43@yahoo.com for information, or to reserve a place for your creche scene(s). There are a limited number of scenes that will be displayed, so be sure your special ones are included. Nativity ornaments will also be accepted.

St. Margaret of Cortona ~ St. Margaret was homeless as a teenager, a single parent as an adult, and through her devotion to helping others became a Saint. Here at St. Robert’s we remember St. Margaret through our service to young mothers, homeless families, and abused women and children. The St. Margaret of Cortona organization works with VNA (Project Next Step) to provide basic household necessities to those in transition. It is through the generosity of parishioners that we are able to supply things like bed linens, kitchen supplies, and bathroom towels. We receive requests weekly and laundry baskets are filled and delivered to those in most need.

Currently our closet is in need of a few items: New or gently used bath towels, wash cloths, kitchen towels, kitchen utensils (spatulas, mixing spoons, measuring cups), pots and pans, and new bed pillows. If you would like to make a donation or learn more about the program please contact Sara Hansen at 402-330-0804 or bnshansen@gmail.com.

SOCCER BOARD

The Soccer Board is looking for a new Micro/Mini Commissioner for Fall 2014. Fall soccer season runs from Labor Day to Mid-October & Spring soccer season runs from April through Mid-May. It is a nice way to learn who the parents and children are in your grade quickly! It would be nice to find someone by the beginning of SPRING SEASON so that person could shadow Michelle and learn the ropes. Please consider volunteering to help the future of SRB Soccer. If you are interested and/or have any questions about this position, please email Michelle Tjardes ~ michelletjardes@gmail.com

OLIVE WOOD

Hand Carved Olive Wood ~ A beautiful collection of hand carved olive wood religious articles from the Holy Land will be offered for sale in the Narthex this weekend after Masses. We will have an exchange or donation day in the spring for families who could use this sporting apparel. Clear out some clutter and donate to a good cause! Collection boxes will be in front of the school and parish office.

CATHOLIC RELIEF SERVICES

You Did it for Me ~ Imagine having the same meal every day, for every meal: just bread and tea. This is life for Bonu and her three children in the poor village of Monjoy Kone in Afghanistan. The monotony is only broken once a year when a local charity gives the family lamb or goat for the Eid holiday. But mealtimes will soon get much tastier and healthier for Bonu and her family. CRS has helped Bonu build a keyhole garden: a simple raised-bed garden, where she can grow vegetables year-round. Bonu is growing radishes, lettuce and turnips. “Now I'll be able to give vegetables to my children,” she smiles.
